

FLEXIBLE PAYMENT OPTIONS

Plan the experience you love with convenient invoice payment choices.

You don't have to pay everything at once when an eligible payment option is available. Request an invoice before booking directly online, then review the payment choices offered at checkout.

HOW FLEXIBLE PAYMENT WORKS

Flexible payment options are accessed through your personalized Picnic Loft invoice. Available choices can vary by transaction and by the payment provider, so the options shown when you select Pay Now are the options currently available for that invoice.

Three Simple Steps

01	Submit Your Contact Form Tell us about your experience, preferred date, location, and any special requests using the contact form on The Picnic Loft website.
02	Receive Your Personalized Invoice We review your request and send an invoice showing the approved experience details, selections, and amount due.
03	Choose Your Payment Option Open your invoice and select Pay Now to view the payment methods and any eligible Buy Now, Pay Later choices available for that transaction.

Want flexible payment options? Request an invoice before booking directly online.

Understanding Your Payment Options

Buy Now, Pay Later Options

When eligible, your invoice checkout can display third-party Buy Now, Pay Later choices such as Afterpay, Affirm, Klarna, or other available providers. The exact options shown can vary, and not every provider will be available for every transaction.

Approval is not controlled by The Picnic Loft. Eligibility, approval, payment schedules, financing terms, and any provider requirements are determined by the third-party payment provider.

Standard Payment Methods

Your invoice can also display standard secure payment methods available through the checkout system. Select the method that works best for you from the choices presented when you pay.

The payment choices visible on your invoice checkout are the current options available for that transaction.

Your Picnic Loft Payment Deadline Still Applies

Choosing a payment plan or third-party financing option does not change the payment deadline required by The Picnic Loft. Your reservation must still meet the payment schedule stated on your invoice, booking confirmation, or written agreement.

Current booking policy: The remaining balance is due no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event unless The Picnic Loft approves a different arrangement in writing.

Your Reservation Is Not Secured Until Required Payment Is Received

Submitting a contact form or receiving an invoice does not by itself reserve your date. Your reservation is secured only after the required booking payment has been received according to your invoice and booking terms.

Before You Choose a Payment Plan

Review the Provider's Terms

If you choose a third-party financing or Buy Now, Pay Later provider, review its payment schedule, due dates, eligibility requirements, and other terms before completing the transaction. Your financing agreement is between you and that provider.

Payment Plan Approval Can Vary

A payment option appearing for one client or one invoice does not guarantee that the same option will appear or be approved for another client or transaction. Available providers and approval decisions can change.

Use the Invoice Route for Flexible Options

If you want to explore flexible payment choices, submit your request through The Picnic Loft contact form and request an invoice before booking directly online. Your invoice gives you the opportunity to view the payment options available at checkout.

Questions Before Paying?

If you have a question about the amount on your invoice, your Picnic Loft payment deadline, or what is included with your booking, contact The Picnic Loft before submitting payment. Questions about financing approval, installment schedules, or third-party account decisions should be directed to the payment provider.

READY TO PLAN YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Submit your contact form through The Picnic Loft website and request an invoice. Once your personalized invoice arrives, select Pay Now to review the payment options available to you.

thepicnicloft.com

Flexible payment availability is subject to the payment methods and third-party providers presented at checkout. The Picnic Loft does not guarantee financing approval.